About This Game

No matter if you are a mahjong master or a beginner, this game will be your best choice!

Creative design of solid 3D mahjong levels, simple game rules, suitable for everyone!

It's transformed from the traditional matching game and brings relaxing experience to players in 3D way.

Be the master and pair all the cubes to eliminate them on over 60+ levels!

Game features:

- VR and non VR mode. It mean's everybody can play with this game! The non VR mode control is keyboard and mouse
 - Classic and 3D style levels.
- Optionally you can use both controller at the same time to remove tiles.
 - Rotate, move and zoom the board.
 - Teleport around the board to find the best angle.
- It's a simple puzzle game which is suitable for any age groups.
 - Auto hint and shuffle function, in case if you'd get stuck 🤔🤔

How to play:

Choose two identical mahjong tiles to pair and remove, which can only be done, if their left or right side is unblocked (no neighbour).

You can use your controllers to zoom in, zoom out or rotate and move the objects. The board will automatically reshuffle if there are no tiles to be paired.

After you remove all mahjong tiles the level is complete.

I pulled myself away from Warsim after an hour of playing and enjoyed every minute of it. I am an old fart who used to running a BBS back in the day and enjoyed games like LORD (Legend of the Red Dragon) and such. Also enjoyed a ton of text based RPG games way on monochrome monitors way before there were graphical games. I say this to say how big of a smile this game has put on my face playing it. I look forward to playing it some more. I love how it pulls you in. The only small annoyance so far that I have found is that when going through visitors to the court I had the same Bandit named character visit me, even though I just stuck in him jail. Then he visited again. I haven't read the forums so I am not sure if this is a known issue or just luck of the draw either way I would like to suggest some type of tracking to avoid this type of issue. Other than that I give this a 9.5 out of 10.. um jogo legal,Mas,o tempo de jogo é muito curto,em torno de 30 min.. Great fun -- takes only a few minutes to learn the basics, after which you can get your♥♥♥♥♥handed back to you over and over in multiplayer.. Fun idea and premise. My only complaint is the game won't let me name my arcade whatever I want. Keeps telling me the neighborhood won't like it.

If I choose to name my arcade "SEXY TIME" that's my decision. Don't tell me how to run my arcade, game!. Hey everyone. I bought this game quite some time ago now and enjoyed playing it over LAN at home with friends and against bots. I'd like to tell you what changes were made in the last update to this game, but I can't because the devs decided we now have to create an online account with password in order to play at all. It would've been nice to give people the option to continue playing over LAN without forcing players online with strangers. I enjoy playing multiplayer online sometimes, but there are plenty of times that I just don't want to. I enjoyed things the way they were.

If you know nothing about the game, it's basically like the old Car Wars arena play from Steve Jackson Games, but these vehicles hover. I enjoyed the game a lot for what it's worth, but if you want to play you need to get used to the idea that an online account is required. I can't review any of the changes since the last major update that added the account requirement with no option to bypass. As it is, if you like cars and weapons in an arena, this is okay... but wait for it to go on sale.

I do recommend the game overall with the notable provisions stated above. My kids didn't really like playing it very much. They'd rather play a lot of other games instead of this. I have deleted the game from my system, but if my kids ever change their minds about playing... maybe I'll make an account for it. Maybe. Sometimes I just want to play over LAN with people I know, but the devs excluded that option. Too bad.. a very nostalgic game if I've ever played one. wow. ana story was touching. :(.
Doesn't save your progress. Don't waste your time with it.. i totally recommend it . Sailing in VR Regatta gave me the feeling of being a teenager again, when I used to sail on a small ~12-foot, fiberglass-foam Sunfish.

This captures the realism of the mechanics of a small sailboat; controlling the mainsheet to adjust the sail, holding on to the tiller to steer, your positioning on the boat distributes weight appropriately & if you lean it shifts, and even the daggerboard can be raised up.

(There is also a larger sailboat with an engine and a wheel that you can switch to from the desktop menu.)

It all adds up to an immersive experience. Sailing along the islands in the freeform mode is relaxing and enjoyable; there are different times of day/night to set the mood.

There are also solo timed races and multiplayer racing for anyone who wants sailing challenges, and they're reasons to get better at the mechanics of sailing.

You're not left in the dark wondering what to do when you start -- there's a voiced mentor who gives you tips in a friendly Australian accent, teaching you what to do and how to do it, and he can be turned off once you get the hang of sailing on your own.

Great simulation that's doesn't overwhelm, and is enjoyable & relaxing.

!!SPOILER ALERT!! (duh..)

Very good and solid short horror game if they replace in the last chase scene the ball of light with some actual horror entity it would be perfect+

Enjoy my gameplay here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4m3n0qtuS4I>. really ok matching game with olympus and athens as a theme/style. For some reason there are hidden object parts in the game now and then which I don't think really belong here also do the quasi building aspects don't seem to have a purpose besides advancing the game. The matching part is the main thing and they do break it up with different gimmicks and types of stuff. It's enjoyable for a little while, easy to understand rules and interface.. The game looks amazing, the building is relatively smooth and easy to pick up. That game is dead. I would have wished to see more people. Hope it doesn't die out. Good luck!. I would recommend this game if you have a rival friend and need a new game to settle the score.

This game is very very deep and fun.

Tactical strategy board game.

Perfect to ruin your friends mood on anygiven day.

No need to buy the expansion at first, try out the base game before going anyfurther.

.Do not buy, not fun and way too difficult, 6 in 1? holy crapamoly what a bargain. 6 of the greatest games ever made in 1 cheap♥♥♥♥♥bundle!. Once you learn not to swing the sword outside your play area this is a fun workout game.

I understand the fact the dev had to let the enemies stand outside otherwise they would be in your face the whole time.

This game is Fight rinse repeat in the same area.

I wish there was some more variety.The Fighting style works but I'd love to see more controller feedback.

. It doesn't run. It used to, but now it doesn't.
